Class of 2014

Dedication

Mr. Siekman,

The class of 2014 dedicates this yearbook to you because of the inspiring and caring person that you are, and your unending happiness. Thank you for always having a bright smile on your face, no matter what challenges you are facing. Your always positive attitude is an inspiration. Thank you for boosting the confidence of students in need, and having faith in everyone. Your dedication to your students success and happiness is incredible. It is amazing how you manage to make a difference in the lives of so many that are graced with your presence, whether in class, ski & ride, polar bears, outing club, or weekend trips. Your positive, easygoing, accepting personality is something we, and others, will carry on for the rest of our lives. Please know that you have made a difference in the lives of many, and we all extend our greatest thanks. We will miss seeing your smile everyday. You have the most positive outlook on life! You're the best, thanks!

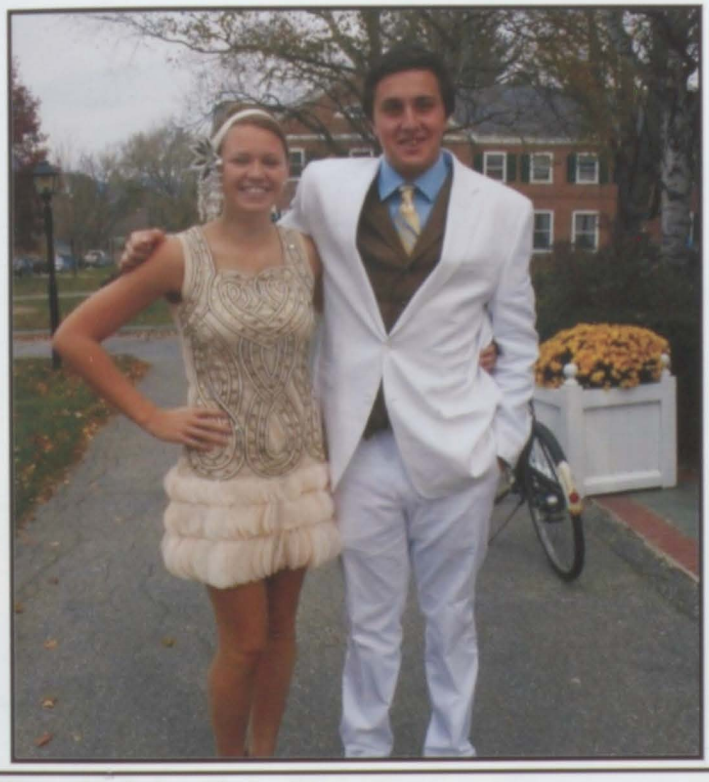
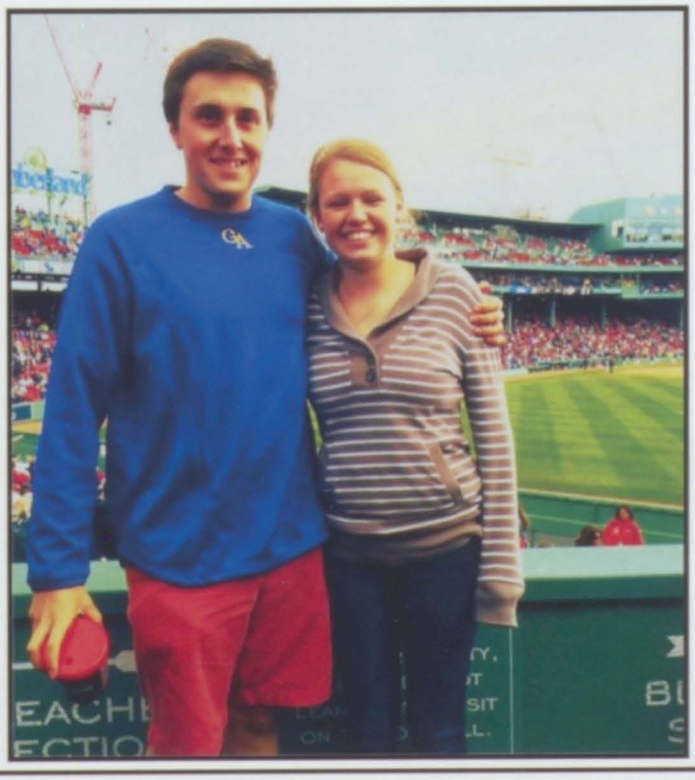
Mom, Dad, Mr. Hedden and everyone else I shared time with here at Gould,
Thank you for everything! I really couldn't have done it without you. Shout outs to SH, JS, SD, TH, JL, HM, CH, MD, and Mr. Hayward.





Mom, Dad,, family and friends,
These past four years wouldn't have been the same without all of you. Thank you for everything you've done! Shout out to MH, AM, SM, RW, JJ and BK.

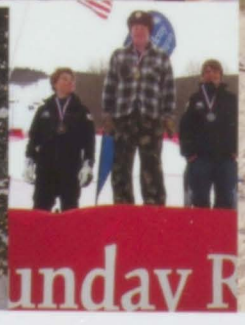
Lan T.

I would just like to thank everyone who has made these last four years of [illegible] years of my life. Thanks to my family (mom, dad and brother) for sending me away from home to pursue my passions. I would also like to thank the faculty and coaches who I have had which include Thomson, Riley, Parker, Gray, Bob Barnbeau, Bruce Johnston, Matt Erickson, Sam Hoyle. Also, my teachers who have made me so smart!! Lastly, my two advisors who I could not thank enough, Ryan Snee and Jay Riley. Thank You to all and I hope I made and impact on your life as much as you did mine. I am sorry if I left anyone out.

Sincerely, Benji



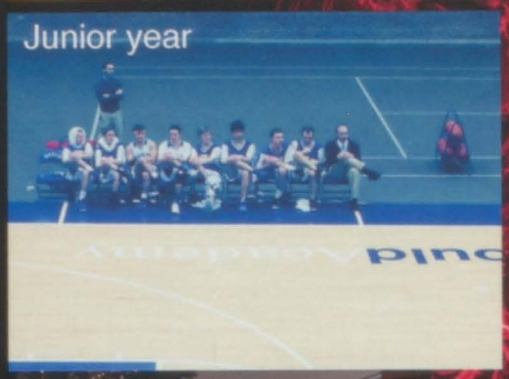
Caili Inman

Thanks to my friends, family, and advisor for all the wonderful memories I have experienced through out my 4 years at Gould!

Always have confidence in yourself and your capabilities for it is with those that you will achieve eternal happiness.

The Life of Shenzhenese in GA

Annie Lee & Ke He
李越曦 & 贺柯



One of the most memorable experiences in our life.

Happy Graduation! !

Time actually passed soo fast...

We will probably miss Gould..actually we will.

This is the place that dreams started.

The Biot–Savart Law The magnetic field set up by a current-carrying conductor can be found from the Biot–Savart law. This law asserts that the contribution $d\vec{B}$ to the field produced by a current-length element $i\,d\vec{s}$ at a point P located a distance r from the current element is

$$d\vec{B} = \frac{\mu_0}{4\pi}\frac{i\,d\vec{s}\times\hat{r}}{r^2} \qquad \text{(Biot–Savart law)}. \tag{29-3}$$

Here $\hat{r}$ is a unit vector that points from the segment toward P, and μ_0, called the permeability constant, has the value

$$4\pi\times10^{-7}\ \text{T}\cdot\text{m/A} \approx 1.26\times10^{-6}\ \text{T}\cdot\text{m/A}.$$

Magnetic Field of a Long, Straight Wire For a long, straight wire carrying a current i, the Biot–Savart law gives, for the magnitude of the magnetic field at a perpendicular distance R from the wire,

$$B = \frac{\mu_0 i}{2\pi R} \qquad \text{(long, straight wire)}. \tag{29-4}$$

Magnetic Field of a Circular Arc The magnitude of the magnetic field at the center of a circular arc, of radius R and central angle θ (in radians), is where d is the wire separation, and i_a and i_b are the currents in the wires.

$$B = \frac{\mu_0 i}{4\pi R}\theta \qquad \text{(circular arc)}. \tag{29-5}$$

Ampere's Law Ampere's law states that

$$\oint \vec{B}\cdot d\vec{s} = \mu_0 i_{\text{enc}} \qquad \text{(Ampere's law)}. \tag{29-14}$$

The line integral in this equation is evaluated around a closed loop called an Amperian loop. The current i_{enc} on the right side is the net current encircled by the loop. For a tightly packed solenoid, Eq. 29-14 reduces to Eq. 29-3 to calculate the magnetic field due to the currents.

Field of a Solenoid and a Toroid Inside a long, tightly wound solenoid (or toroid) that carries current, the magnetic field is where n is the number of turns per unit length. At a point inside a toroid, the magnitude B of the magnetic field is

$$B = \mu_0 i n \qquad \text{(ideal solenoid)}, \tag{29-23}$$

$$B = \frac{\mu_0 i N}{2\pi}\frac{1}{r} \qquad \text{(toroid)}, \tag{29-24}$$

One of biggest challenges during our Senior year! AP E&M! But it was fun. Best teacher and nice people in our class.

P.Q.F FORDYCE.

I want to thank my friends, my family, and my three puppies for helping me through the craziest four years of my life that is high school. Through thick and thin, they helped me progress as a person and a student-athlete.

Entrepreneur

"They were drunk on youth, fueled by greed, and higher than kites." -Jordan Belfort

"Understand: people judge you by appearances, the image you project through your actions, words, and style. If you do not take control of this process, then people will see and define you the way they want to, often to your detriment. You might think that being consistent with this image will make others respect and trust you, but in fact it is the opposite—over time you seem predictable and weak. Consistency is an illusion anyway—each passing day brings changes within you. You must not be afraid to express these evolutions. The powerful learn early in life that they have the freedom to mold their image, fitting the needs and moods of the moment. In this way, they keep others off balance and maintain an air of mystery. You must follow this path and find great pleasure in reinventing yourself, as if you were the author writing your own drama" - 50 Cent

Thank you to the amazing people we have met here. To our teachers, to coaches, family and friends -- you have certainly influenced, motivated and supported us throughout our time at Gould and beyond. We have learnt so much from everyone and hope to keep all the strong ties we have made here.

"What is above knows what is below, but what is below does not know what is above.One climbs, one sees. One descends, one sees no longer, but one has seen.There is an art of conducting oneself in the lower regions by the memory of what saw higher up.
What one can no longer see, one can at least still know." - Rene Daumal

Before I came abroad, life in U.S. had been tough in my imagination.When I came here, however, everything was different.My teachers are amazing and nice, and my classmates are interesting and talented. Moreover, I met a bunch of super crazy friends, because of whom I never got bored. All the things adding up, this year turned out to be my best year ever in my life. Thanks for everyone that I met in Gould!

Clay,
Your family is so proud of all you and all you have accomplished. I know your father and Poppy would be so very proud of you too, if they were still with us. I hope you always look back on your years at Gould with a smile on your face, and warmth in your heart. Always remember the friends you made, the places you went, and the academic successes you enjoyed there. I can't think of another school where you would have had the opportunity to ski all over the West for 3 consecutive weeks, or visit the Great Wall of China. As you move on to your college career, we want to congratulate you for your graduation from Gould Academy, and look forward to sharing your future adventures with you. We love you so much!!!

Congratulations Harrison!

We are so proud of you and the wonderful young man you have become.

As much as this might seem like an ending, in truth, it is only the beginning of something so great and beautiful-an exciting journey of growth, struggle, love and fulfillment. This: the journey of your adult life. So with this salutation, we wish you and the Class of 2014 a joyful, successful and fulfilling future.

Love Mom, Dad, Reed, Wyatt and Jessie.

We love you, Delaney!

Louis:

Every person has a calling in life, so your real job is to identify your unique purpose and to honor it in the best way possible.
The two biggest barriers to fulfilling your purpose in life are envy and people-pleasing.
Envy says, «I must be like you to be happy. »
People-pleasing says, «I must be liked by you to be happy. »
You have to live for an audience of one.
